We take privacy seriously and invest significant resources in protecting individual-level information with which we have been entrusted. Personally identifiable information is never released without explicit permission from the individual. Information is stored in our secure, online data management systems.

Our collection, use and sharing of information complies with all federal and state laws, such as the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). We maintain, as allowed by law, digital records necessary for historical analyses. For questions or more information, contact us at dataoperations@unitedwayglv.org

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion are core to all we are and all we do.

We deploy our resources to build communities of belonging, empathy and empowerment. In doing so, we must apply a lens of equity to all internal and external systems and be the change agents needed to realize the vision of a beloved community where every person belongs and every person thrives.

- We stand against racism, discrimination and social injustice and are dedicated to dismantling these epidemics in all forms.
- We advocate for concrete policy and systems changes and invest in work that advances racial equity and social justice for all.
- We commit to equitable fundraising practices, ensuring that receiving organizations are committed to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and can demonstrate that commitment in meaningful ways.
- We strive to ensure a diverse, inclusive workplace in which staff and volunteers reflect the community, can contribute fully, and share the responsibility of putting the values of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion into daily practice.
